

General Meeting

May 10th, 2018

Called to order @6:24 by President, Sandy Lapp

President's Report – Sandy

- Goals for this year – be financially solvent and assist where ever we could for the theatre students.
- We were able to cover the transportation costs for 51 of the students to travel to Dallas.
- We are helping with the costs for 17 students who are attending the International Thespian Festival this summer in Nebraska
- We hope to be able to purchase a storage trailer for the theatre department.

Election –

The Candidates are as follows:

Been involved with RP theatre for 3 yrs., helping with anything from painting sets, sewing parts of costumes, working concessions and designing couple of the t-shirts (Troupe & Fan shirt)

My day job is Graphic Design.
Lived in Sienna since 2000.

Positions that remain unchanged:

President – Sandy

Treasurer – Cara Cansler

Everyone was in favor of all new board positions. Passed unanimously.

Things to do – go to bank and get Kristi Jones removed and add Christy Witt.

Need to update booktix. Somehow the Royals logo is printing at the bottom of our tickets.

Ideas – booster point systems. Points to hang up posters at local eateries, points for retweeting, reposts, selling tickets. Points can be traded for money to go towards theatre trips. Legacy bricks (start in April to get approval for Seniors to be able to paint bricks in dressing rooms)

Summertime – meeting to talk about corporate sponsors, fundraisers

Banquet reminders – please purchase your tickets -info on RPHS Theatre Booster Page – you must purchase dinner in advance – there will not be tickets for food available at the door.

Link & Drink – Tomorrow night – 5 pm to 7 pm – Auditorium concession – Thank you to HEB for supporting our Booster. Tickets still available -$8

Finally a HUGE thank you to our Corporate Sponsor – My Fairytale Vacation!

Meeting adjourned @6:51
